Dear Christopher (Chris)

I'm so glad we met in Diano this year. You are so cool. You're a really nice guy. Remember, you still owe me a break dance lesson (he ha) that'll be
day. Stay in touch.
Love Always,

YEARS

U.S. GRANT HIGH SCHOOL

13000 OXNARD ST., VAN NUYS, CA

LANCER

STAFF

We began this school year 1983-84 by setting both meaningful goals and high expectations for our school program, student body, and staff.

The 1984 Shield chronicles this year of change and achievement based on directions we set as a school and community. Each page of this annual points to a combination of factors that define success for each of us. Our dedicated and professional faculty, administrators, and classified staff have reflected the best interests of all students and the total school program. We can take great satisfaction in the knowledge that our community leaders and parents have displayed concern, involvement, and commitment to our educational program.

We also take great pride in our student body, led by the Senior Class "Ecstasy" Student Council, and many campus organizations. All of our students have worked, studied, and reached our highest expectations.

As the last page of the Shield is turned and the last autograph recorded, each of us can remember this year with pride and satisfaction. Secure in our memories, we can pursue next year continuing excellence. It is now that we can appreciate our school motto, "What we are to be, we are now becoming."

EAST VALLEY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

The 1984 season for our Grant Lancers proved to be a very successful and rewarding season. Despite only two returning players, the team proved that working together can accomplish anything. The Lancer team demonstrated its strength and spirit through its 7-1 season, and even though they lost one game early in the season, the team went on to defeat all remaining teams and move up to participate in the city playoffs.

EAST VALLEY LEAGUE CO-CHAMPIONS

This was a very exciting season for our bees. The 1983 Bee team is the fifth team in the schools history to lose only 1 league game. This loss was a hard fought double overtime loss by 1 point to No Hollywood. The championship is the fourth for the Bees and coach Halpern. The teams 10 year won-loss record is 95 wins and 36 losses

The Lancer Athletic tradition has always been of high standard at Grant. This past year has been no different. The records do not represent the pride and determination of the Lancer athletes. Despite hard times, team and individual performances were at a high all throughout the Spring season. The Fall brought on new hopes and the continuing drive of competition. Some lost, others won, but no matter the outcome, the flame of victory still burned bright for the Grant Lancers

Friends are like good wine and have the best!

I have found something in each of you as precious as life As beautiful as love In each of you I have a true friend

love you all,
Brenda

Sometimes when I'm alone, I sit and think about how I've spent my day A memory two will pop into my head and I find tears in my eyes at the thought of going away

When I think about all the time I spent wondering — Does he like me? Is it love or just a crush? I smile at the thought of how my high school years I've tried to rush But now I realize what great years those have been, with all the good and bad memories I have seen these memories have helped me grow and shape my life and I know it will be a long time before I see strife

The years that we've been friends and everything we've been through, will always stay in my memory and no matter where I am I'll always think of you

A TRIBUTE TO THE BEST OF THE BMOC'S

PAUL STEIN

Oude! Are those new shoes? HEY HEY HEY off the Nikes! What's new in the library? Kicked out again? Bus stop not by William Inge? Yeah well, you know. Are you bored? Did you really work on Birdie? Lets go to the bench. How's Bullmoose? You cried during "Happy Days"? What's wrong? Not another diet! The hot dogs got a little burnt. Hi Steve. I mean Paul. Your brother the little what? New York New York. Popcorn, peanuts. How much weight have you lost? Doubledates. A 96! How's the Elephant Man? The lady hates you, huh? No one reads the editorials. Popeye vs punks in a car race. Walk you to French? How bout a party on the beach? Spagetti on a car? Watch the language dear. Let's TP a house. Pictures in McDonald's. Oh Five or twenty? Which Michel's? Problems, problems. What should I do? You're my bud. Paul Love Fiona

Dear Paul

Have I ever told you that of all the guys I've known, it's you that deep down, reminds me the most of myself? Shy, yet outgoing, always quiet on the outside about your ambitions, but on the inside, dreaming like a Walter Mitty of expectations you have for yourself. Yes, if I do say so myself, they are qualities I respect in a person.

Strangely Paul, When it came to writing letters to you three, it was yours that was the hardest. I can't find the words to say quite what I want. I always know that I can count on you to be there if I need someone, and I always know that you'll go out of your way to show you care (even if it's just a phone call). Perhaps you think I don't notice, but, believe me, I do. And if, at times I take my bad moods out on you, it's only because I feel comfortable enough to know that I can be human. Thank you so much, Paul Love Marlene

STEVE GORUKIN

Cleaver! That's Dawg! Don't forget, I got sunshine. Did you do your Biology? Gee pee wee, you can't funk your senior year. Let's get beat up at Bash'n Robbins. Sunburnt again? There's a hole in your lip. Paul's birthday is coming. A Homecoming Queen? How's Flat F? Make any cranks lately? It was so incredible! Toilet paper on your car. Slumber Parties. Read a playboy today? How'd you know it was me? Cakes on a doorstep (yours and mine). Who told you that you could water ski? All those kept and unkept secrets. Got caught in a park. I can't believe I'm telling you this. Last Halloween. Should there be a comma here? Lousy yearbook messages. No hard feelings? Love ya (gel it?) Chick

Dear Steve

Everyone seems to think that the jokers never seem to care. In fact, if you recall last Halloween, I said that exact line to you (we won't mention what followed, will we?) I'll admit Steve, that there was a time there when you were the only person that could really make me laugh. I'll never forget your endless stories about the "Merry Fannies" or which girl you were going out with this week — each one followed by your usual, "It was so incredible!"

But it never really dawned on me that you actually cared, until that night you showed up on my doorstep, with cake in hand just to cheer me up when I was down. Or how about that other little favor you did for me on the night of the one-act performances, no one has ever done anything like that for me before in my life (and to think that at that time I thought you were my enemy). I just want you to know that I'll never forget what you've done. Thanks for that, and a whole lot more! Lots of Love, Marlene

RICHARD HORVITZ

Hey Bud! Maybe you're not so bad. Dirty jokes from dirty minds. Give me an "A" on my spelling test. Which is the correct pronunciation? How are John and Mary Mistletoe? Fights, fights, fights. Long talks outside the 600 building. Still wanna be Spike? Let's go for a walk around the wash. Macho poster for a birthday girl. Paul's case I'm going to French. Strip poker. Did Sister Mary explain it? Three hour phone calls. How was Houlihan's, or Buena Vista Lake? Ah, surprise parties. Wanna cake in your face? Billy Joel says goodbye. Disneyland tomorrow (maybe twice). Elph Beasley, or was it Al? Try-outs next week. Would you settle for four leads in two plays? This is R.H. with the "It's Christmastime in January. Tell me a secret. Lost an appendix lately? The invalid ticked Jack because it was mandatory for equal protection. Did Spock die? Which nose did you prefer? Was the prom that bad? Hugged a Teddy Bear today? What else to say? The feeling was very mutual. Love, Leenybopper

Dear Richard

In this time of hellas, you are to me as the Scarecrow is to Dorothy at the end of "The Wizard of Oz" (watch the movie if you don't know what I mean). It's been such a strange three years, and so much has happened since that first day of Geometry. When you were one guy with his six girls, leader of a family, you don't know how many times that imitable Horvitz flare lifted many a down spirit. Of course I can only speak for myself, but that time will always remain among the finest I'll ever encounter!

Knowing that Rich Horvitz, the funny one, always ready with a joke, or song and dance was nice, but that's not from where the attachment grew. The "bond" stemmed from that seldom seen sensitive side of Richard Horvitz, the one that hurts and feels and cries, just like everyone else. You shared that with me, along with your biggest dreams and deepest fears — and that is the Richard I'll always remember and love. I'll never forget you, and I'll always be here (just like breezes here in old Shanghai). Love you, Marlene

FRIENDS

A lonely soul walks the earth
It is the soul of loneliness and of friendless people
What are people without friends?
They are empty hearted, and faced with a life of sadness Friends bring to empty darkness
a warm and radiant glow Friends bring to sadness the gift of joy and tranquility Friends bring to the hopeless
the faith of companionship Friends fill the emptiness in the heart with love and space of glory
We are Friends!!

Walk With Me

I hope you'll always walk with me
Along life's merry way
We'll laugh aloud, and dream great dreams
And let our fancies play
Life's much too short to do the things
That cry out to be done
Let's make each day we have at hand
A bright and happy one There'll be sorrow here and there
For each must get a share
But troubles prove how much it means
